Whereas, the Bank's General Assembly, held on Ramadan 18th, 1443 AH / April 19th, 2022 approved the reappointment of PricewaterhouseCoopers and EY as the Bank's external auditors to examine, review, and audit the financial statements for the second, third quarters as well as the annual statement for the fiscal year 2022 and first quarter 2023 and determine their fees.

Also, the Committee approved the annual audit review plan submitted by the external auditors. The Committee also discussed with the external auditors the annual management letters and the observations raised and directed the concerned departments to implement and follow up the corrective action plans.

- Internal Audit:

The Committee approved the annual internal audit plan and the comprehensive strategic plan for the next four years. The Committee also followed up and reviewed the periodic reports issued by the Bank's Internal Audit Group, the progress of implementing the approved plans, reviewed significant observations and provided the necessary directions to address any deficiencies.

- Compliance:

The Committee discussed the periodic reports of the Compliance and Anti-Money Laundering Group, following up on the adequacy of the enhancement level of compliance, reviewed significant observations and reports issued by regulatory inspections and the non-compliance with the regulations and instructions and provided its recommendations.

7. Results of the annual internal review of the effectiveness of the Bank's internal control

The Bank adopts an internal control framework based on three lines of defense. The various departments and business sectors in the Bank correspond their activities in accordance with the rules and regulations established and approved by the competent functions represent the first line of defense. The second line of defense is represented by control functions including the Compliance Group, Risk Management Group, the Finance Group, and the Information Security Group, which are concerned with assessing, measuring and monitoring various levels of risks in terms of daily operations, credit operations and information security to ensure compliance with the controls set in place and with the aim of meeting the Bank's regulatory requirements. These departments submit periodic reports to the Management Committees and the Board's Sub-Committees, including the Board Risk Committee. The Internal Audit Group carries out the tasks of the third line of defense concerned with conducting the necessary audits and reviews that ensure the Bank and its employees are complying with the approved policies and procedures based on the work of the Internal Audit Group implemented during the year 2022, which covered the main activities of the Bank.

Generally, there is a reasonable assurance of the effectiveness of the internal control systems in terms of covering the important control aspects that materially affect the Bank's achievement of its objectives.

8. The audit Committee's opinion on the adequacy of the internal control system:

The executive management of the Bank is responsible for establishing and maintaining an effective internal control system that includes all policies, procedures, and processes that have been designed under the supervision of the Board of Directors to achieve the strategic objectives of the Bank. An integrated system for internal control has been designed in the Bank as recommended by the regulatory and supervisory authorities. The Bank evaluates and monitors the internal control system through its control functions and the concerned Committees.

Based on the periodic reports presented to the Committee by the Internal Audit Group, the Compliance Group, the Risk Management Group, as well as the external auditors, and based on the annual confirmations and disclosures obtained from the executive management, the Audit Committee considers that the internal control system currently in place is operating with an acceptable and reasonability level of effectiveness. Taking into consideration that any internal control system, regardless of the soundness of its design and effectiveness of its implementation, cannot provide absolute assurance.
